Death Before Dishonor: A Novel (Volume 1) Tanisha Renee'

Christian Garcia was raised in Boston, by his mostly “absentee” mother, Maria. She left her home of Peru, at 18, in hopes of living a good life, raising a family, and living the American dream. At the age of 13, Christian is forced to move with a father, he never knew, after his mother is found dead. Relocating his life to the Bronx, New York to a family he knew nothing about and a culture he knew little about. After meeting his half-brother, Money, and seeing the amount of respect he has He soon realizes that the “family business”, is the only way to achieve success and power. In this life, he quickly realizes everything is not what it seems. Come take a ride with Chris, as he searches for answers to his past, and will stop at nothing until he gets them.
