Book Description: Being in love is a good thing and it is one of the best things that happens to us on earth. Men and women should try to give love a trial because that is what we are here for, to share love and care for the other ones. Apart from the family and friendship love, taking love to the higher level has a main role to play in life. Talking of the brotherly or sisterly love, universal love and not the acting like you care love. Why women and men should give love a try is because it is all about letting it go. In love, we let go of the shield that protects us and we invest most of time and energy into it. We let go of the fear and put in so much trust into the other person. What really scares people away from love is the fear of being let down, which is not the way we think of it. Love is literally the only thing that helps us shift our perspective of suffocation and limitation to embracing liberation.
