This volume draws together select sermons from twenty-five years of Ben Witherington's preaching life. A tireless scholar, Witherington is passionate about using his scholarship to deliver life-giving words to God's people. Beginning with a telling essay by J. Ellsworth Kalas on the quest for effective biblical preaching, arranged according to the liturgical year, and enhanced by practical study-and-meditation guides ending the six liturgical sections, Witherington's Incandescence will inspire and enlighten preachers and general readers alike.
