MYSTERY: (Book 1) Guilty till Proven Innocent (Book 1) (Comedy Sweet Cove Culinary Short Story Suspense) Lorrie Bannett

Agent Rita Moore arrived at the scene of the murder about ten hours after the little girl was murdered. And she first of all stood by the doorstep and silently watched as the forensic scientists did their level best to ensure that all of the evidence had been collected. Agent Moore had been doing this for quite some time and she had somewhat of a routine when it came to dealing with such matters.

With that little observation, it was enough for her to know that this wasn't the usual breaking and entering that ended up with a fatal murder. But still, what thug would want to attack a defenseless child? It was still very confusing come to look at it. But that said, she decided to start looking at the case a lot differently.

What if the child murdered herself? Maybe it was an accident of some sort, she kept on telling herself. Will agent Rita Moore solve the case? Keep on reading to find out what transpires.
