"Please don't stop trying..."

Charlotte has two problems: She is a twenty-four year-old virgin with an irrational fear of sex, and she's seeing a guy who makes her knees weak.

When Christopher gets too close, she panics and pushes him away to keep herself from getting hurt. He eventually finds out her secret and Charlotte lets him back in, but someone from Christopher's past fills her with new fears and doubts.

Playing hard to get is Christopher's big weakness, but their problems are more than just Charlotte's inexperience.

Will their relationship wither under the pressure?

Or will the winding path they follow lead to something different, and perhaps better than either of them ever dreamed?
