She's trying to live down her reputation. He's trying to live up to his.

Elena has always been impulsive, until one wild night on a reality dating show earns her a reputation she can't escape. She wanted to be famous, but now she's infamous and determined to redeem herself. No more impulsive Old Elena. New Elena is going to be respectable and sweet if it kills her—and her first task is attending the wedding of the woman who beat her on the show.

Secret Service golden boy Adam Dylan never wanted fame, but when he's caught on camera saving the daughter of an A-List actress the video goes viral and he becomes America's favorite hero. But there's more to the story than the media hype. Now a sought-after celebrity bodyguard, he's determined to earn his heroic reputation—even if that means nothing more glamorous than working security at a celebrity wedding.

When one of the wedding guests doesn't want to take no for an answer, Adam comes to Elena's rescue. It's been a long time since anyone has stood up for her, but her reputation can only drag him down. Elena knows she should keep her distance, but it's oh so tempting to give in to her wild impulses just one more time.
