Alyssa is a happily married woman who couldn't love her husband, Jamal, any more than she already does. But being married doesn't mean a girl can't have secrets – and Alyssa's been considering what it would be like to have a threesome for some time.

When she and Jamal decide to actually go through with it, they hire a male escort, hoping for someone handsome but anonymous. Instead they find themselves face-to-face with their best friend Sean. Sean's been keeping a secret too: he's in love with both of them. Their next step could destroy their friendship... or lead to something much more.

The Unexpected Menage was originally published as a serial novel. This is the full collection of all three parts, and also includes a never before seen epilogue. It is a complete novel of 23,500 words.
