After Liana's marriage imploded, her only desire was to reconnect with happiness. She didn't expect to fall desperately in love with the man of her dreams—or what happened next. Kevin was enamored with Liana and she remained on his mind long after they parted and he moved cross country. He kept trying to forget her but never expected to run into her thousands of miles from home. Lou decided to open his home to his cousin Kevin because this lusty babe magnet could provide him with some choice castoffs that being a doctor still couldn't get him. He worried it could get messy—and he was right. Delilah yearned for a mad, passionate love, and was thunderstruck when the man she most desired also wanted her. This is the singles scene and it features turbulent romances that are heart wrenching and tantalizingly sexy, singles whose lives intertwine and disconnect in the meet market. It's a small world and you never know who will capture—or break—your heart.
