His brother's ex . . .

Software developer Rylan Krause is under the gun. The produce app he's designing isn't coming together and time is running out. But a reluctant trip to the grocery store with his brother's ex-girlfriend gets him up close and personal with vegetables and gives him exactly the inspiration he needs. Miranda Travers is a nutritionist, a four-letter word in Rylan's pizza, soda and chips lifestyle, but she's his key resource for the app.

Miranda may have initiated the breakup with Frazer, but Rylan always assumed she preferred guys with his brother's reserved demeanor. Then the intimacy of a home-cooked meal designed to change his junk food ways leads to an outcome he never imagined. When he realizes that Miranda yearns for a spontaneous guy like him, he's torn between loyalty to his brother and desire for his brother's ex.
