Do you have a burden to intercede for your city through the ministry of dance at a city wide level? Do you feel as if the Lord is calling you to minister to your city with other worship dancers from various backgrounds, ages, ethnic groups, and churches to impact your city spiritually in a significant way? In this book Tyhisha Paden will discuss how to form a powerful community-based dance ministry team that ministers with a sharp prophetic edge while building the walls of your city. This book will not only help you formulate a citywide dance team, but also provide insight on the use of worship tools combined with prophetic intercession to create a tremendous impact in the Heavenlies.
