Bridget and the Company Man

Incredible Bonus Gift Inside: Romance Short Stories Collection

The lumberjacks of Forestville, California want women they can marry. Mail order brides seem the best solution.

Humiliated by her fiancé, Bridget O'Riley leaves New York City for Forestville to see if the man her friend Elise has written to her about will be a suitable spouse. She's happy to be leaving New York behind for a new life, but is it advisable to marry a man she doesn't know?

Jared Coleman is convinced their union will work and per-suades Bridget to marry him. Unfortunately, Bridget isn't ready to consummate their marriage. At the very least, she needs time to get to know him.

But discovering each other isn't the only challenge the couple face. Something corrupt may be hiding in the town of Forestville, and Bridget and Jared may be on brink of learning what secrets the town holds. Will Jared and Bridget grow to love again through each other, or will the underworkings of the town stop them before they have the chance to start?
