The Three Stooges Scrapbook is an official, authorized book on the history of the Three Stooges comedy team and on all aspects of their career. Much time was spent on separating fact from fiction. Most of the data contained took over ten years to research. Contracts, scripts, films, letters, tape recordings, and other rare materials were culled from personal family collections were reviewed to help paint an accurate picture of The Three Stooges monumental career. In addition, exclusive interviews were conducted over a period of years with Moe Howard, Larry Fine, Joe Besser, and Joe DeRita - and with such co-workers as Edwards Bernrds, Jules White, Elwood Ullman, Norman Maurer, Charles Lamont, Lou Breslow, Emil Sitka and many others. And, for the insatiable Stoooge fan, the Scrapbook features the most comprehensive filmography ever compiled, which includes the Stooges appearances as a team as well as its members solo appearances. Detailed summaries, production sidelights and production footnotes, highlight each Stoooge film listed; technical credits and a complete cast of characters are also included. The Three Stooges Scrapbook also includes, for the first time, the history of Stooges merchandise, a review of the team's countless television appearances, an extensive overview of the trio's record album career, and this illustrious history of Three Stooges comics books. And this book would not be complete without giving each of the Stooges his own intimate, biographical sketch. For fun and laughter, The Three Stooges Scrapbook also takes a close look at Three Stooges impersonators. Even the comical antics of Stooges fans are recounted in a chapter on the growing cult of Stooges-enthusiasts and their attempts to glorify their three comic heroes. It's a review of Three Stooges trivia, history, illustrations and comedy n 'yuk-n 'yuks at their best!
