The third installment of Women of the Bible, a compelling series for fans of historical romance and fiction.

Like most brides, Jael hopes for a loving marriage. But when Heber takes her home to his other women, her dreams crumble. The women warn Jael that to bear the sons Heber demands, she must risk shame, betrayal of her vows, even execution. But in this darkest moment, there sparks a flame-the young warrior Levi. Jael is presented with a life-changing decision, one that will affect all the people of Israel. And there's no turning back on the path that will lead her to change history-by doing the unthinkable.
