If you are looking for sensuous intelligence peppered with indignant hints of Southern charm, this book of poetry will take you on a delicious ride. Ms. Berry explores perspectives, familial concerns, and sex through words and rhythms both visually and verbally. You will find several poetic structures inside. There are poems to titillate you, frustrate you, anger you, and make you laugh. There are rhymes, free verse, and the confoundedly chaotic. The poems span many years and life stories of relationships, writing, loving, and human rights to consider. Grab some tea, Bourbon (or both) and look through someone's jagged perspective for a while.
