Wear My Hat is a book full of diferent cultures and different says of two young youth from thier up bringing to adulthood. Jane and Sunny both explains the danger of what a child can go through because of their past but in all they over come their hurt pains. Sunny did not understand what she was going through because Sunny's parent did not explain to her the danger of a brokening heart. So Sunny maded up her little vision of what she thinks her life should be, a place without pain and hurt but her friend Jane brought her pain and hurt to her because you would think she was jealous of her but some will say Jane is a dangers person. Or some think Jane want Sunny to have more but Sunny did not think that to the end of her story. Sunny had to repeat childhood classes because of her past life and what she learned and what she did not learning because of past life.
