Will and Lina: When Two Worlds Collide (Volume 1) Melissa Cecilia

When Will Alden decided to move to Los Angeles on a whim, he didn't know what adventures would be in store for him. He ran with an elite crowd, he had a house of his own (despite his young age), and a seemingly bottomless trust fund to empty. So what if no one knew he'd escaped his native London without a warning? No one in the City of Angels even knew he was even British... nor did they suspect his true reason for moving. A new hometown meant a new start and a chance to leave everything behind, didn't it? There were only three things that L.A. native Lina Zamora worried about: her family, doing well in college, and blending in. She hated attracting any sort of attention and was glad her life was finally stable after a few rocky years she wished to forget. As long as she could help her family, and do it unnoticed by the drama queens, she didn't mind making a couple of sacrifices... including not having a social life. Surely she would be able to keep her new routine going without any interference, wouldn't she?
