Signs and Symbols: Interpreting and working with signs and symbols Jodi Maree

An easy reference guide on what types of things could be considered signs or symbols, how to recognise and read them and how to work with the information to understand your direction and choices.

Signs and Symbols have been a way we interact with life and the divine for 1000s of years. There are an abundance of resources for discovering what a certain sign means, this book is less about defining what certain signs mean and more about working out how the Universe is already speaking to you and guiding you every day. This book will show you how signs work, what could be considered a sign and how to piece the information from several signs together to understand your interaction with the Universe.

This reference guide also includes:

- the most common meaning of numbers,
- what certain times of day can mean,
- the emotional meaning behind certain body parts
- a simplified guide to body reading
