A blast of cold air hit them and they found themselves staring at yet another flight of stairs. There, at the twist in the stairs, the hall light did not reach. Icy drafts brushed by sending shivers through them. "Kurt!" Zola whispered. "I don't like this, we must turn back!" SLAM! Went the door behind them, enveloping them in complete darkness! From above came a soft whispering, a faint glow of light... something... someone was coming! Kurt and Willie find themselves embroiled in another adventure when they agree to help friends investigate Towering Pines Manor. There are noises in the night, a strange shadow that haunts them, whisperings and a baby crying. Is it someone playing a cruel joke? Or... are there really ghosts!
