IJM's Republic Frank Visser, Santje Kramer

Frank Visser worked both in studios and on location to come up with his unique settings, where he created a universe unto itself first and foremost through his use of colour but also by using unexpected accessories. A universe that includes for example 'Tokyo Americana' and 'Color of Silence'. These unique worlds come to life in the book thanks to evocative, dreamlike photos and textual musings. Interspersed with pages from the handbook, printed on a different type of paper. Includes practical tips about paint and colour, composition, light, space, the basic equipment you need...

Even the thought process is discussed: how do you get an idea or a commission, how do you develop a manuscript... Includes black and white photos of Frank at work in studios and on sets.
