The Broken road is a compilation of some of Amara's work. It includes several of her short stories, poetry and previews of her two next works-Merili's Wine and The Prayer. This is a great read for those that wish for instant gratification. Amara's stories are poignant, colorful and have the ability to capture the reader's heart as they get to know her characters. This book is for those that enjoy stories about people who have to overcome obstacles in their lives, contemporary poetry, love and romance stories and a look into the lives of people who must look within themselves to discover what they are truly made of.
