Everyone has a past....Draya Mitchell knew that better than anyone. Estranged from her family and carrying on a seven-year affair with an abusive, married, church deacon, Damien, Draya, thought she would forever be second best until she stumbled upon the handsome new trainer at her gym, Liam. While Damien's hold on her was strong, Liam gave her a glimpse of what life could be like with a man of her own, and Draya finally gained the strength to end things with Damien for good.

While things are heating up and becoming serious between Liam and Draya, she quickly realizes just like her, he has a past to conceal, involving his gold-digging stepmother and the mysterious death of his father. While digging for answers, a vicious wrath is unleashed on Draya, but the only problem is, who is behind it? With Damien unwilling to throw in the towel and his wife, Deena, on her tail, Draya has to decide if the threats against her are because of her past, or if it's someone using her to get even with Liam.

As the betrayal and lies begin to mount, Draya has to decide if her new choice is worth it or just another mistake to add to her list.
