How to Walk in the Last Days with God (How to Walk Christian Series Book 7) Raymond Candy, Glenda Candy

“How to Walk in the Last Days with God” is the sixth book in the How to Walk Christian series and continues to build upon the spiritual principles that were established in the previous books on living the Spirit-filled Christian life.

These thought provoking explorations into the Word of God reveal the hidden truths that allow you to be the victorious Christian that Jesus provided for. This book in the series takes a refreshing new look at “the last days” and the “coming of Christ.”

Refusing to be “bogged down” by opposing theories and contradictions concerning end time prophecies, the author uses the Word of God to explain in easy to understand language what every believer needs to know in order to walk victoriously and endure the last days before the coming of Christ.

Through revelations contained in the Word of God concerning the Bride of Christ, the Second Coming, and the faithful servant, the author provides new understanding about what it will take to overcome “perilous times” and “strong delusion”. Understanding these Biblical truths provides the keys necessary to unlock the power of God and live the life that is needed to hear the wonderful words, “Well done thou faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord.”

If you have read “The Memoirs of the Servants of the Lord”, then you are familiar with the miraculous ministry that the Lord wrought through the lives of the Candy family in the late 70’s and 80’s. The experiences that God wrought in their lives while being led by the Holy Spirit prove that these Biblical revelations are not theoretical ideas but are actual life changing applications of the Word of God. This book provides the Scriptural basis to build the faith that is needed so that anyone can experience that same type of ministry and victorious living today. Mr. Candy's Christian publications have been read in over sixty countries around the world.

Authors Raymond G. and Glenda S. Candy - With over 30 years in Christian ministry, Mr. and Mrs. Candy have been Pastors, Teachers, Evangelists, Missionaries, and have established and been the Principal of three Christian schools. Their experience in teaching and working with children from Kindergarten through High School has given them a unique perspective and ability to relate to children at any level. This becomes evident in the reading of “The Little Pig Dog” series of books for children.

Their experience as Ministers and their desire to bring revival to the smaller congregations and less fortunate is demonstrated in their Christian books about the miracle working power of God in the lives of everyday, ordinary individuals. Now in addition to The Little Pig Dog series of children books is their new “How to Walk Christian Series” of books and their book of memoirs entitled “The Memoirs of the Servants of the Lord”- a miraculous account of the Candy family’s Christian ministry.
