London 2012 : What If? (Book One) (A Romantic Thriller) Ian C.P. Irvine

One of the most imaginative and gripping stories you will ever read!

When James Quinn went to bed last night, everything was as it should be. But when he wakes up the next morning and goes to work, everything changes. Where have his wife and two children gone? How is it possible that the building where he works every day...has vanished? What has happened to the rest of Canary Wharf, the financial centre of London – where has it gone? And why is someone else living in his house?

And how can it be that his father, long dead and buried, is now very much alive?

Has James gone mad? Was the life he knew and loved all just a dream he conjured up in a coma? Or is there something far more sinister happening?

Convinced that his wife and family were not just a dream, he starts to search for the truth, and vows to recapture again everything that he once had, but took for granted.

This book will make you laugh and cry, and everyone that reads it will ask the simple question: ‘What if this happened to me?’

The science is well researched and stands up well. I really can't wait to read the next in the series. '
