And We've Come Full Circle (A Graham Family Story) (Volume 2) Aliyah Burke

Two souls brought together where their ancestors once met. Jasira Graham in her last year of recruiting duty in South Dakota, has no idea going out to the Reservation would alter the course of her life. The sheriff who pulled her over was a man unlike any she'd ever met before and no matter how hard she tries, she can't get him out of her mind. When he shows up at her work and asks her out, she accepts and learns that there are some things which are just meant to be. Stone Black Hawk is tired of dealing with military officers who fly through his domain with little or no respect. So when he sees a car swerving he pulls them over expecting more of the same. He's never been more wrong. It wasn't a commissioned officer and it most definitely wasn't a man. He wasn't ready for the lifealtering moment when he first touches her. Something about her strikes him deeply. Stone pursues her and realizes that things aren't always what they seem. There is something going on between them that just can't be ignored. Pursuit of a relationship leads them to passion neither can deny. The fact she will be leaving is something which stands in their way. Can Stone get her to realize sometimes to get a person to accept where they have been and where they belong they must come full circle?
