Veronica is a highly successful lawyer who sadly learns that her boyfriend of five years has been living a double life. For months she tries to recover from his deception.

After months of depression, she calls her eccentric cousin in hopes of regaining herself; Lexi invites her down immediately, allowing her free access to her condo on the beach.

As soon as she arrives, Veronica allows all her inhibitions to wane. She begins to experience sexual pleasures like never before. In the course of discovering her inner tigress, she meets a mysterious Spanish man.

The man rekindles old memories: good and bad. Will Veronica ever love again? Will she ever let her heart trust again? Find out in this exciting short story: REKINDLED

FORBIDDEN FLOWERS by Charlize Bennett

Blu Flowers, a successful young interior designer, struggles to make it to the top in New York City. She feels overworked and underpaid by her sexually harassing boss. The gorgeous Jason Kennedy a bestselling self-help author sweeps her off her feet. He finds her innocence, and gullible ways a playground to study for his next novel. She finds him attractive, dreamy and dangerous.

Being a girls girl--she believes that the professional female population should stick together. That is, until she meets Sabina Mendez, the under qualified Brazilian bombshell who runs the office with an iron fist.

Blu's disdain for Sabina softens after they are accidentally locked-in their office. During their captivity, Blu discovers Sabina's tender side, creating confusion and uncertainty in this otherwise confident woman.

Sabina and Blu find themselves in an awkward yet pleasureable positions. Setting the Stage for an unlikely friendship and more to come.
