Tami Hoag's meteoric rise up the bestseller charts continues with her new thriller, a story of a horrific murder in a southern town. Pamela Bichon's killer walked free - yet for Deputy Annie Broussard, still haunted by the sight of the crucified body, the case is far from over. But pursuing the investigation means teaming up with Cajun cop Nick Fourcade, a man she doesn't trust. It Means Suffering vicious harassment from her fellow cops. And it Means getting close to a suspected killer. Soon Annie will find herself in a maze of treachery and deceit - the closer she draws to the brutal truth, the deadlier a wrong turning could become.
