A Widow's Walk Through Sunshine and Shadows Mickie Bunn-Smith

Forever or ""for the rest of our lives"" -words used in connection with relationships. Julianne thought she was going to spend ""the rest of her life"" with Kirk. Turns out he spent his ""forever"" with her. Now, the rest of Julianne's life stretches out in front of her-and forever seems like a long time. Julianne never expected to be alone at age 48. But cancer took Kirk, and Julianne was left alone to raise their two teenage boys and try to rebuild her life. As her husband and best friend said to her right before dying..."Julianne, I've spent half my life with you, now you are going to have to spend half your life without me..." This is the story of a widow's walk through sunshine and shadows finally realizing time is the only thing she had and the only thing she could not control.
