Raina and Jeffrey meet unexpectedly at a preschool art show and are drawn to each other immediately. Jeffrey was amazed by her beauty, her aura and above all her sense of humor.

He knew it was be impossible to win her heart. But with much courage, he asks her to be with him, for only a week. He wants to get to know her, as she does, before they make any commitments.

But there's something more: he's a billionaire and wants to treat her to the best week of her life. They can do whatever they want together and Raina asks him if they can go to Japan. They do and she is exposed to luxuries she only dreamt of.

With love comes adversity, and in Japan, Raina and Jeffrey learn the hard way that there's more to love than just riches and beauty.
